

INDEX TO VOLUME III

- Ability, constitution of, 310; general, in relation to learning, 283; nature of, 311; studies of mechanical, 213.
- Achievement, of bright children, 286; prediction and prognosis, 300.
- Achievement tests. See, Educational tests.
- Adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities, bibliography, 272; honor courses, 234; individual instruction, 235; sectioning classes on basis of ability, 236; special remedial instruction, 236.
- Administration of education, development of law relating to, 389; in local school systems, 391; powers and duties of local officers, 392; present day provisions with respect to certain school officials, 381; state organization for, 383; trends in constitutional provisions for, 378.
- Adolescence, effect of upon mental development, 113, 120, 158; physical development during, 122; physical growth from birth to, 130.
- Age-grade status, outstanding problems, 195. See also Progress, school.
- American Educational Research Association, officers for 1932-33, (inside front cover, Vol. III, No. 1); officers for 1933-34, (inside front cover, Vol. III, Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5); qualifications for membership (inside front cover, all issues); list of members, 469.
- Anatomic development. See, Physical development.
- Apportionment. See, School finance.
- Attendance at school, amount of, 188; truancy, as factor in non-attendance, 190; bibliography, 246; causes of non-attendance, 190; census, 189; costs of attendance service, 193; effectiveness of present legislation on, 192; exemptions from 193; history of compulsory, 186; improvement of, 191; legislation governing compulsory, 187; officers, 190; results of non-attendance, 191; systems of enforcing, 189. See also Non-attendance, school.
- Bibliographies, adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities, 272; administration of local school systems, 453; basic considerations concerning educational tests, 62; characteristics of pupil population, 260; constitutional basis of public education, 451; district organization and control of education, 453; extra-curriculum activities, 263; federal and state relations to education, 450; general conditions affecting teaching and learning, 365; guidance and counseling, 263; legal basis of higher education, 465; legal status of school pupils, 462; legal status of the teacher, 460; mental development from birth to puberty, 163; mental and physical development in adolescence, 168; methods of teaching, 361; physical growth from birth to puberty, 174; recent developments in the selection of test items, 62; recent developments in statistical procedures, 65; recent developments in testing for guidance, 72; recent developments in the use of tests, 74; recent developments in statistical procedures, 65; recent developments in testing for guidance, 72; recording and reporting, 256; relationships in physical and mental development, 177; school attendance, 246; school finance, 455 school marks, 253; school progress, 249; school property, 459; special education, 274; state administrative organization for education, 451; text books and curriculum, 464; tort liability of school district, officers and teachers, 460; types, characteristics and problems of learning, 349.
- Boards of education, control, authority and liability, 394; legal authority of, 393; of institutions of higher education, 445; procedure and records, 396; textbook control by, 435.
- Bonds, school, laws governing, 405.
- Budgets, school, laws governing, 404, 405.
- Buildings, school, laws governing financing of, 403; power to provide and erect, 412; See also School properties.
- Census, school, legal regulations and actual practices, 189.
- Character, studies of, 211.
- Constitutional provisions for education, bibliography, 451; general, 378; relating to administration, 378; relating to higher education, 379; relating to religion, 379; relating to school support, 379.
- Contracts, teachers, analysis of forms, 422; dismissal of teachers, 425.
- Corporal punishment, legal status of, 420.
- Correlation, by machines, 38; charts, 38; partial and multiple methods, 38.
- Counseling. See, Guidance.
- Curriculum. See, Program of studies.
- Districts, school. See, School districts.
- Education, bibliography on constitutional basis of public, 451; bibliography on federal and state relations to, 450; crippled children, 402; district organization and control of, 390; federal and state relations to, 373; financial support of, 399; general provision for, 378; legal aspects of higher, 443; present day provisions for, 380; tests of achievement, 5; trend in constitutional provisions for, 378; trends in constitutional provisions for higher, 379. See also, Administration of education, and Higher education.
- Educational tests, analytical vs. statistical determination of items, 21; bibliography on, 62; construction of, 14; critical issues, 39, 46; cumulative records of scores, 12; difficulty of items, 25; discriminating power of items, 16; effects of group work on, 35; effects of time limits on, 35; essay type, 30; fallacies of standards, 13; fallacies in use of, 10; for guidance, 41; importance of comparability of scores, 13; improved methods of using for guidance, 6; limitations of testing, 5; long-time guidance of individuals through use of, 8; measures of reliability, 36; need of measuring growth over period of years, 5; restrictions upon content, 19; scaling of, 37; selection of content, 14; selection of items, 21; statistical procedures, 33; systematic use of comparable, 5; statistical treatment of results, 36; time saving and cost reduction devices, 38; use of, in curriculum construction, 55; use of, in evaluating methods of teaching, 57; use of, for determining and evaluating administrative policies, 51; use of, in improvement of learning, 57; use of, in making provisions for individual differences, 52; use of, in promoting pupils, 53; use of, in setting up objectives, 56; use of, in standardizing teachers' marks, 54; use of, in supervision, 54; validation of items, 26; validation procedures, 33.
- Enrolment, studies of school, 187.
- Errors in school subjects, analysis of, 302; factors making for, 305; findings of, 304; nature of in different school subjects, 304; technics employed in analyses, 303.
- Examinations. See, Educational tests.
- Extra-curriculum activities, administrative organization and control of, in colleges and universities, 225; administration of, in elementary and high schools, 230; bibliography, 263; classification of, in elementary and high schools, 227; evaluation, in colleges and universities, 225; evaluation, in elementary and high schools, 230; extent of participation, in colleges and universities, 222; extent of participation, in elementary and high schools, 228; factors related to participation, in colleges and univer-

INDEX TO VOLUME III

- Ability, constitution of, 310; general, in relation to learning, 283; nature of, 311; studies of mechanical, 213.
- Achievement, of bright children, 286; prediction and prognosis, 300.
- Achievement tests. See, Educational tests.
- Adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities, bibliography, 272; honor courses, 234; individual instruction, 235; sectioning classes on basis of ability, 236; special remedial instruction, 236.
- Administration of education, development of law relating to, 389; in local school systems, 391; powers and duties of local officers, 392; present day provisions with respect to certain school officials, 381; state organization for, 383; trends in constitutional provisions for, 378.
- Adolescence, effect of upon mental development, 113, 120, 158; physical development during, 122; physical growth from birth to, 130.
- Age-grade status, outstanding problems, 195. See also Progress, school.
- American Educational Research Association, officers for 1932-33, (inside front cover, Vol. III, No. 1); officers for 1933-34, (inside front cover, Vol. III, Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5); qualifications for membership (inside front cover, all issues); list of members, 469.
- Anatomic development. See, Physical development.
- Apportionment. See, School finance.
- Attendance at school, amount of, 188; truancy, as factor in non-attendance, 190; bibliography, 246; causes of non-attendance, 190; census, 189; costs of attendance service, 193; effectiveness of present legislation on, 192; exemptions from 193; history of compulsory, 186; improvement of, 191; legislation governing compulsory, 187; officers, 190; results of non-attendance, 191; systems of enforcing, 189. See also Non-attendance, school.
- Bibliographies, adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities, 272; administration of local school systems, 453; basic considerations concerning educational tests, 62; characteristics of pupil population, 260; constitutional basis of public education, 451; district organization and control of education, 453; extra-curriculum activities, 263; federal and state relations to education, 450; general conditions affecting teaching and learning, 365; guidance and counseling, 263; legal basis of higher education, 465; legal status of school pupils, 462; legal status of the teacher, 460; mental development from birth to puberty, 163; mental and physical development in adolescence, 168; methods of teaching, 361; physical growth from birth to puberty, 174; recent developments in the selection of test items, 62; recent developments in statistical procedures, 65; recent developments in testing for guidance, 72; recent developments in the use of tests, 74; recent developments in statistical procedures, 65; recent developments in testing for guidance, 72; recording and reporting, 256; relationships in physical and mental development, 177; school attendance, 246; school finance, 455 school marks, 253; school progress, 249; school property, 459; special education, 274; state administrative organization for education, 451; text books and curriculum, 464; tort liability of school district, officers and teachers, 460; types, characteristics and problems of learning, 349.
- Boards of education, control, authority and liability, 394; legal authority of, 393; of institutions of higher education, 445; procedure and records, 396; textbook control by, 435.
- Bonds, school, laws governing, 405.
- Budgets, school, laws governing, 404, 405.
- Buildings, school, laws governing financing of, 403; power to provide and erect, 412; See also School properties.
- Census, school, legal regulations and actual practices, 189.
- Character, studies of, 211.
- Constitutional provisions for education, bibliography, 451; general, 378; relating to administration, 378; relating to higher education, 379; relating to religion, 379; relating to school support, 379.
- Contracts, teachers, analysis of forms, 422; dismissal of teachers, 425.
- Corporal punishment, legal status of, 420.
- Correlation, by machines, 38; charts, 38; partial and multiple methods, 38.
- Counseling. See, Guidance.
- Curriculum. See, Program of studies.
- Districts, school. See, School districts.
- Education, bibliography on constitutional basis of public, 451; bibliography on federal and state relations to, 450; crippled children, 402; district organization and control of, 390; federal and state relations to, 373; financial support of, 399; general provision for, 378; legal aspects of higher, 443; present day provisions for, 380; tests of achievement, 5; trend in constitutional provisions for, 378; trends in constitutional provisions for higher, 379. See also, Administration of education, and Higher education.
- Educational tests, analytical vs. statistical determination of items, 21; bibliography on, 62; construction of, 14; critical issues, 39, 46; cumulative records of scores, 12; difficulty of items, 25; discriminating power of items, 16; effects of group work on, 35; effects of time limits on, 35; essay type, 30; fallacies of standards, 13; fallacies in use of, 10; for guidance, 41; importance of comparability of scores, 13; improved methods of using for guidance, 6; limitations of testing, 5; long-time guidance of individuals through use of, 8; measures of reliability, 36; need of measuring growth over period of years, 5; restrictions upon content, 19; scaling of, 37; selection of content, 14; selection of items, 21; statistical procedures, 33; systematic use of comparable, 5; statistical treatment of results, 36; time saving and cost reduction devices, 38; use of, in curriculum construction, 55; use of, in evaluating methods of teaching, 57; use of, for determining and evaluating administrative policies, 51; use of, in improvement of learning, 57; use of, in making provisions for individual differences, 52; use of, in promoting pupils, 53; use of, in setting up objectives, 56; use of, in standardizing teachers' marks, 54; use of, in supervision, 54; validation of items, 26; validation procedures, 33.
- Enrolment, studies of school, 187.
- Errors in school subjects, analysis of, 302; factors making for, 305; findings of, 304; nature of in different school subjects, 304; technics employed in analyses, 303.
- Examinations. See, Educational tests.
- Extra-curriculum activities, administrative organization and control of, in colleges and universities, 225; administration of, in elementary and high schools, 230; bibliography, 263; classification of, in elementary and high schools, 227; evaluation, in colleges and universities, 225; evaluation, in elementary and high schools, 230; extent of participation, in colleges and universities, 222; extent of participation, in elementary and high schools, 228; factors related to participation, in colleges and univer-

- sities, 223; factors related to participation in elementary and high schools, 228; history of, in colleges and universities, 222; history of, in elementary and high schools, 227; number and frequency of, in elementary and high schools, 227; student government, in colleges and universities, 226; student government, in elementary and high schools, 233; textbooks on, 232; types of, in colleges and universities, 222.
- Federal relations to education, bibliography, 450; discussion of, 373.
- Finance, school. See, School finance.
- Funds and expenditures, school, laws governing permanent funds, 404; laws governing reserve funds, 404; legal control of, 403.
- Gifted children, special schools and classes for, 243.
- Guidance, bibliography on recent developments in testing for, 72; bibliography of studies on guidance and counseling, 263; development of, and counseling service, 214; follow up studies of graduates, 219; forward steps in, 44; in public schools, 214; literature concerning, 217; organization for school, 215; progress in, 214; recent developments in testing for, 41; scope of, 42; testing for selection, 41; through use of tests, 8.
- Higher education, bibliography on legal basis of, 465; constitutional provisions for, 379; English universities, 449; faculties in institutions of, 445; federal relations to, 449; governing boards, 445; laws governing military training in, 444; state control of, 446; students of, 443; studies of particular state institutions for, 448. See also, Adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities.
- High schools, legal provisions for aid to, 402; legislative enactments governing instruction 438.
- Individual differences, among siblings, 103; in intelligence, 117; in twins, 99; provisions for, 52.
- Intelligence, and personality in learning, 288; and preferences as they affect learning, 289; and retention, 288; and transfer, application and generalization, 286; as related to age of parents, 105; as related to learning of the laboratory type, 284; as related to learning school subjects, 284; bibliography on, as related to learning, 349; constancy of the I. Q., 116; instructional methods as related to, 287; level, as a condition to learning, 283; range of individual differences, 117.
- Intelligence quotient, constancy of, 116; in relation to success in high school, 283.
- Items, test, bibliography on recent developments in the selection of, 62; difficulty of, 25; discriminating power of single, 16; relative validity of different types of, 34; selection of, 21; validation of, 26; weighting of, 37.
- Junior high schools and junior colleges, legal provisions for aid to, 402.
- Kindergartens, laws concerning support of, 401.
- Learning, analyses of errors, 302; as related to examination and students marks, 344; attitudes, 294; bibliography, 349, 365; conditions of, 314; effect of class size, 339; logical analysis of material for, 313; general conditions affecting, 338; genetic studies of, 299; as related to age beyond school limits, 299; growth in educational abilities, 299; instructional materials as related to, 343; motivation of, 338; motor skills, 294; permanence of, 296; prediction and prognosis, 300; problem solving, 295; problems of discipline, 341; sex differences as related to, 308; special types of, 294; vocabulary, 295; vocal ability, 295.
- Legal basis of education, bibliography, 450; constitutional provisions for, 378, 451; relation of federal government to education, 373; relation of states to education, 376.
- Liability of school districts, rule of non-liability and exceptions, 415-417.
- Libraries, selection of books by state and local authorities, 436; state and county aid to, 402.
- Marks, school, bibliography, 253; distribution and reliability of, 201; factors affecting, 202; sex differences in, 119; systems of, 203.
- Mechanical ability. See, Ability.
- Mental age, of adults, 112. See also, Intelligence and Intelligence quotient.
- Mental and physical development, bibliography, 177; constancy of the I. Q., 116; in adolescence, 108; relationships in, 150.
- Mental defectives, special classes for, 243.
- Mental development, age of cessation, 109; as related to race, 105; bibliography, 163; effect of pubescence upon, 120; from birth to puberty, 84; in infancy, 86; in relation to nature and nurture, 97; sex differences in, 118; of siblings, 103; of the deaf and blind, 106; of the intellectually inferior and superior, 94; of the pre-school child, 90; of the school child, 91; of twins, 99; pubescence, as indicator of, 158; rate of, during adolescence, 113.
- Metabolism, rates of, 127.
- Methods of teaching, bibliography, 361; diagnostic and remedial, 331; mathematics, 323, 329, 334; natural science, 323; reading and language, 318, 326, 332; social science, 322; spelling, 321, 329; teaching pupils how to study, 346; writing, 322.
- Motor development, growth in, 148; muscular strength, 127.
- National Education Association, relationship to American Educational Research Association (front inside cover, all issues).
- Non-attendance, school, causes of, 190; results of, 191. See also, Attendance, school.
- Officials, school. See, School officials.
- Open air classes, studies of, 242.
- Personnel, pupil. See, Pupil personnel, and Guidance.
- Physical development, anatomic development, 122; correlational studies on size, 152; dentition, 157; from birth to puberty, 130; general bodily growth, 133; head measurements, 154; in adolescence, 122; muscular, 127; of negroes, 146; physiological age, 156; studies of, 213; technics of measurement, 130.
- Physical education, legal provisions for aid to, 402.
- Population, pupil, bibliography, 260; characteristics of high school seniors, 209; characteristics of superior children, 210; general characteristics of, 209; mechanical ability, 213; physical growth, 213; sex and race differences, 211.
- Program of studies, bibliography on curriculum, 464; court decisions relating to, 437; for elementary schools, 439; for secondary schools, 440; powers of local agencies relating to, 437; powers of the state relating to, 437; trends in legislative provisions, 438.
- Progress, school, age-grade status as measure of, 195; bibliography, 249; elimination of pupils, 199; promotions, 197; studies limited to certain aspects, 194.
- Promotions, pupil, studies of, 197. See also, Progress, school.
- Property, school. See, School properties.
- Pupil elimination, studies of, 199. See also, Progress, school.
- Pupil personnel, adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities, 234; bibliography on legal status of, 462; bibliography, 246; compensation for injuries, 433; compulsory attendance, 430; corporal punishment, 420; discipline, 432; education of crippled children, 402; extra-curriculum activities, 222; guidance and counseling, 214; legal status of, 428; measures of school progress, 194; recording and reporting, 205; right to attend school, 429; school attendance, 186; school marks, 201; special schools and classes, 238; studies of pupil characteristics, 209. See also, Promotions, pupil, and Pupil elimination.
- Race, differences in intelligence and achievement, 211; differences in mental growth, 105; legal status of segregation, 430.

- Recording and reporting, bibliography, 256; codes for, 207; definition of terms, 206; essential records and items, 205; evaluation and utilization of items, 207; forms for, 207.
- Reliability as related to tests, concept of, 36; principles for formulating, 208; of sampling, 36; optimum, of items, 36.
- Religion in schools, conditions giving rise to court action, 441; trends in constitutional provisions concerning, 379; court decisions relating to, 442; summary of legal enactments, 442.
- Retention in learning, amount of forgetting, 296; conditions of recall, 315; curves of forgetting, 298; factors influencing, 298; practice necessary for, 297; relative, of different kinds of material, 297.
- School, attendance, 186; census, 189; enrolment, 187; marks, 201; progress, 194; properties, 409; records and reports, 205; state aid to elementary, 401.
- School boards. See, Boards of education.
- School districts, bibliography on administration of education in, 453; bibliography on organization and control of education, 453; bibliography on tort liability of, 460; status of organization for education, 390; tort liability of, 413.
- School finance, bibliography on legal basis of, 455; constitutional provisions for, 407; laws governing budgets, bonds and funds, 404, 405; legal control of funds and expenditures, 403; legal provisions for special projects, 401; legal status of apportionment, 400; legal status of taxation, 401; municipal relations to, 405; systems in individual states, 406; See also, School support.
- School officials, bibliography on tort liability of, 460; personal liability of, 418; powers and duties of local, 392; powers and duties of state, 385. See also, Boards of education and Teachers.
- School properties, acquisition and ownership, 409; bibliography, 459; change of school site, 411; control and possession of, 413; conveyance to districts, 411; disposition and loss of, 413; power to provide and erect school buildings, 412; power to select site, 410; statutes concerning, 409.
- School subjects, analysis of errors in, 302; effect of the study of one on another, 290; general ability as related to learning, 283; special disability in, 307; transfer of training, 289. See also, Program of studies.
- School support, present day provisions for, 381; trends in constitutional provisions for, 378.
- Secondary education. See, High schools.
- Sex differences, as a major problem in learning, 309; as a subsidiary problem in learning, 308; in achievement, 118, 211; in mental development, 118, 212; in school marks, 119.
- Special schools and classes, bibliography, 274; for deaf and hard of hearing, 241; general studies, 238; gifted children, 243; mental defectives, 243; open-air classes, 242; problem of providing in rural schools, 245; speech defectives, 242; the blind, 240; the crippled, 240; truants and delinquents, 244.
- Speech defectives, special schools and classes for, 242.
- Standards, test, fallacies of, 13.
- Standards of instruction, determining courses of study, 441; rules for standardization, 441. See also, Program of studies.
- State administrative organization for education, bibliography, 451; centralization of power, 387; powers and duties of state officials, 385; structure of agencies, 383.
- State relations to education, bibliography, 450; jurisdiction of the states, 376; present day provisions for education, 380; trends in constitutional provisions for education, 378.
- Statistical devices, correlations by machines, 38; partial and multiple correlation methods, 38; plotting, and correlation charts, 38; tables, nomographs, abacs and graphs, 38.
- Statistical methods, as opposed to analytical methods, 21; bibliography on recent developments in, 65; of validating tests and test items, 26, 33; scaling of tests, 37; the A. Q. technic, 37; time saving devices, 38; to determine test results, 36; types of norms, 36.
- Students of higher education, history of and laws governing military training for, 444; laws governing admission and fees, 443; laws governing housing, 443; laws governing organizations, 444; laws relating to degrees and diplomas, 443; laws relating to discipline and dismissal of, 443. See also, Adjustments and classifications in colleges and universities.
- Supervision. See, Methods of teaching.
- Taxation. See, School finance.
- Teachers, analysis of contract forms and school board rules relating to, 422; authority and liability of, 419; bibliography on legal status of, 460; bibliography on tort liability of, 460; contracts, 423; court decisions relating to, 423; dismissal of, 425; faculties in institutions of higher learning, 445; legal status of, 421.
- Teaching methods. See, Methods of teaching.
- Tests. See, Educational tests; Items, test; Validity of tests.
- Textbooks, authority of school boards concerning, 435; bibliography on, 464; state regulations governing, 434; trends in legislative provisions for, 435; types of control, 436.
- Transfer of training, applying rules, generalizing, etc., 292; effect of method on generalizing, 293; effect of one practiced function on another, 291; effect the study of one subject on, 290; general transfer, 289.
- Transportation, statutes and court decisions relating to, expenditures for, 403, 432.
- Truancy, causes of, 190; studies of, 244.
- Tuition, court decisions and laws governing, 431.
- United States Government, educational policy of, 375; relations to education, 373.
- United States Supreme Court, decisions relative to education, 373.
- Validity of tests, as affected by "specific determiners," 34; effect of time limits on, 35; of items, 15; procedures for determining, 33.

